HOST UNIVERSITY IN ARGENTINA

UNIVERSIDAD DE BELGRANO (UB)

Mente Argentina works with one of the most prestigious private universities for higher education in Argentina which is recognized by the Argentine Ministry of Public Education as a degree-granting institution of higher learning.

Aligned with the most prestigious international universities, Mente Argentina's International Relations Program offers instruction using the case method. This approach is based on meeting the demands of International Relations leaders who seek employees and colleagues who are professionals with strong decision-making skills and the ability to efficiently apply theory to practical problems.

Through this approach the students will conceptualize the theoretical contents while developing their cognitive capabilities. In addition, students will gain interpersonal skills through working in groups, presentations and attending workshops. Students will also have the opportunity to participate in seminars and conferences by special invitation.

UNIVERSITY OF BELGRANO: UB

Universidad de Belgrano was founded in 1964 by Dr. Avelino Porto and has grown to become one of Argentina's leaders in higher education. It currently offers more than 50 undergraduate and graduate level degrees to its more than 15,000 local and international students.

Its facilities include fully-equipped classrooms, libraries, cafeteria, bookstore and computer labs, most of these housed in a modern building in an upper-middle class residential neighborhood (Belgrano) only a quick subway or bus-ride away from Buenos Aires' historic and governmental district. The University has over 180 exchange and academic cooperation agreements with universities across the world hosting approximately 2,000 international students each year.

INT. RELATIONS PROGRAM + 4/8 WEEKS OF SPANISH

If you do not have an advanced level of Spanish, the Master Degree Program in International Relations offers you the possibility of attending 1-2 months of intensive Spanish courses before the beginning of the graduate classes. This part of the program is optional, but it can help students quickly improve their comprehension and command of the language as well as adapt to the pace of Argentine university life.

Lessons take 4 hours per day and are delivered from Monday to Friday through the Mente Argentina Intensive Spanish Program in reduced groups of up to 8 students. These group classes can be combined with individual lessons so that you can reinforce your weaknesses and we can answer your inquiries in a one on one meeting. Spanish School's teachers are highly qualified and have a vast experience in teaching Spanish as a second language. Therefore, the classes will be interactive and above all enjoyable!
