HOST UNIVERSITY IN ARGENTINA

UNIVERSIDAD DE BELGRANO (UB)

Mente Argentina works with one of the most prestigious private universities for higher education in Argentina which is recognized by the Argentine Ministry of Public Education as a degree-granting institution of higher learning.

Since its founding in 1964, and after more than thirty years of continuous growth, the university currently has thirteen schools devoted to both undergraduate and graduate education in several fields. More than 14,500 students are enrolled in 33 undergraduate majors and 20 graduate programs. The university has a great deal of experience working with foreign students as more than one thousand study abroad students enroll here each year.

Aligned with the most prestigious international universities, Mente Argentina's International Political Economy Program offers instruction using the case method. This approach is based on meeting the demands of International Political Economy leaders who seek employees and colleagues who are professionals with strong decision-making skills and the ability to efficiently apply theory to practical problems.

Through this approach the students will conceptualize the theoretical contents while developing their cognitive capabilities. In addition, students will gain interpersonal skills through working in groups, presentations and attending workshops. Students will also have the opportunity to participate in seminars and conferences by special invitation.

UNIVERSITY OF BELGRANO: UB

Universidad de Belgrano was founded in 1964 by Dr. Avelino Porto and has grown to become one of Argentina's leaders in higher education. It currently offers more than 50 undergraduate and graduate level degrees to its more than 15,000 local and international students.

Its facilities include fully-equipped classrooms, libraries, cafeteria, bookstore and computer labs, most of these housed in a modern building in an upper-middle class residential neighborhood (Belgrano) only a quick subway or bus-ride away from Buenos Aires' historic and governmental district. The University has over 180 exchange and academic cooperation agreements with universities across the world hosting approximately 2,000 international students each year.
